SUBJECT: Contact with Complainant

On 25 Oct 2011 at approximately 1930hrs, R/Sgt made contact with the complainant [REDACTED] at the telephone number [REDACTED] he had provided to IPRA. At that time R/Sgt identified himself to the [REDACTED] and informed him as to the reason that R/Sgt was contacting him. [REDACTED] was asked to explain to R/Sgt what had occurred regarding this incident. [REDACTED] related that he was approached by an individual whom he believed to be an off duty Chicago Police officer who asked him about a sexual relationship between him and the accused's wife. The accused then stated to the complainant, "Are you fucking my wife?" At that time the [REDACTED] alleged that the accused attempted to strike him and then allegedly reached for his weapon. [REDACTED] further alleged that the accused and his wife falsely obtained an Order of Protection against him.

R/Sgt asked [REDACTED] if the accused was in uniform when this was allegedly going on and he stated no. He was also asked if the accused was on duty in an unmarked vehicle and he stated he was not as he was in his personal vehicle he believed. [REDACTED] was asked if he had any information on that vehicle and he said he was trying to get it. At that time R/Sgt informed [REDACTED] that no Order of Protection had been placed in the LEADS system against him and he said that something must be wrong. [REDACTED] was asked if he thought he would be able to identify the accused and he stated that he would. He further informed R/Sgt that he was attempting to obtain the accused's name. [REDACTED] was informed of the Sworn Affidavit requirement and the need for him to sign that document in order for the investigation to move forward. He stated that when he obtained the accused's name he would re-contact R/Sgt and come into the office and sign that sworn affidavit. He was given R/Sgt's telephone number and extension and asked to contact R/Sgt as soon as he was able to get that information or any other info and arrangements could be made to have the affidavit signed. [REDACTED] stated he would contact R/Sgt as soon as possible.
